

Viola Course at Uppingham Summer School

Sunday 10th – Saturday 16th July 2016

£330 (Day Students)

£525 (Residential Students)

An opportunity for talented school age viola players to immerse themselves in viola activities in a fun and controlled way.

Led by internationally renowned artist Graham Oppenheimer, students will have individual lessons and will work extensively with a residential accompanist. Designed to develop repertoire and technique the course also includes a daily masterclass and a number of opportunities to perform during the week.
